About Vanguard Quartz

At Vanguard Quartz, we believe exceptional spaces begin with exceptional surfaces.

With over 30 years of experience in the surfacing industry, we have built our reputation on delivering premium quartz that combines timeless beauty, outstanding durability, and uncompromising quality. Every slab in our collection is carefully selected to meet the highest standards of craftsmanship and performance.

Driven by excellence, we proudly serve fabricators, designers, builders, architects, and homeowners throughout the Midwest and beyond. From sophisticated residential interiors to large-scale commercial projects, our collections are designed to elevate every environment with lasting elegance.

More than a supplier, we are a trusted partner. From material selection to final delivery, our team is committed to providing expert guidance, reliable service, and a seamless experience every step of the way.

At Vanguard Quartz, we don't simply provide surfaces—we help create spaces that inspire, endure, and define modern living.
